

Dispossessed.

Chorus

"What them?" They said in chorus

"What can they do for us?

We know it's hard to bear

But they are always there

When they are so many then

How can we help them?"

The bloody and tortured, the tried and the tired
The helpless and homeless whose time has expired
The lost and the lonely, the loveless and forlorn
The companionless left with no port in a storm

The squalid and the dirty, the coarse and the raw
The vulgar and common, the outcasts and poor
Dishonoured and disgraced, unsung or shamed
The abused and defiled, demeaned and stained

Abject, obsequious, stooped, bent and cowed
Cringing and crawling, fading back into the crowd
Nameless, unmentioned, unloved and unknown
The menial dependant whose cover is blown
